Where to Publish Skin Cancer Case Reports

Journal of Skin Cancer Case Reports (JSCCR) is a peer-reviewed, open access journal that publishes original research articles, reviews, and case reports related to the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of skin cancer and its associated conditions. The journal provides an international platform for physicians, surgeons, and all other healthcare providers to share their experiences and research findings. It also provides a forum for the discussion of current treatments and management options for skin cancer. By publishing in the journal, researchers and clinicians can help to advance the field of skin cancer and its associated conditions. With its rigorous peer-review process and open access format, the journal strives to provide the most up-to-date and accurate information on the diagnosis, treatment, and prevention of skin cancer.
